DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

2. Claims 13-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as based on a disclosure which is not enabling. Structure including at least the 'detent spring (9)' is critical or essential to the practice of the invention as claimed (ie, providing an audible sound or click'), but is not included in the claim(s) is not enabled by the disclosure. See In re Mayhew, 527 F.2d 1229, 188 USPQ 356 (CCPA 1976).

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 13-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

One of ordinary skill in the art could not reasonably, clearly interpret the scope of claims having the 'audible' limitation but not otherwise including the structure that has been disclosed for performing the function. It is not clear what the invention is/includes. The limitation is not in a form where it can be interpreted as in accordance with 35 USC 112, 6th paragraph. See MPEP 2181-2185. While method steps define a process of using invention, it should be noted that a single claim for product and process of using is indefinite. See MPEP 2173.05(p) section II. Otherwise see MPEP 2114 as regards interpretation of functional language in a product claim.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 1-12, and 18-20 are allowed.
4. Due to the nature of rejections made under 35 USC 112, claims 13-17 cannot be indicated as containing allowable subject matter.

Response to Arguments

5. Applicant's arguments have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

6. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
